

August 4-H Newsletter

4-H Activity Update

Fair week is almost here!

Hope everyone has had a great summer so far and is staying cool in these hotter days!

Please take time to read all the way through this newsletter, check your food booth shifts, and call us with any questions!

Keep an eye out for any mail from the Extension Office, as we will be mailing your exhibitor packets in the near future.

JBC Fair Set-Up, Take Down, and Food Booth Schedules

Please be sure to check the schedules included in this newsletter for set-up, take down, and food booth. If you need to switch shifts, you are responsible for finding a replacement

Livestock Interview Questions you may be asked!

- Feed records
- Break even price
- Animal health care, medications, etc
- Animal knowledge about breeds, anatomy, etc
- Feed knowledge (what do you feed your animals)
- Meat products
- Marketing

This list isn't exact questions that you may be asked but it gives you an idea of areas/topics that you should be ready to discuss.

Interview Questions you may be asked!

- Why did you choose this project?
- What did you enjoy most about your project this year?
- What was the most difficult part of your project?
- What did you learn from the problems you encountered? What will you do differently in the future?
- Who helped you with your project this year?
- What new things did you learn this year?
- How will you apply what you learned in the future?
- Do you plan to continue your project again next year?

Tips for Interview Day!

- Arrive at your interview early
- Dress nicely for the interview... jeans and a nice shirt is perfect!
- Greet your judge warmly with a handshake
- Be ready to discuss positive outcomes of your project, as well as areas that didn't turn out as well as you expected
- Prepare for your interview by considering what you learned, and what you would do differently
- Relax and chat with your interviewer. They are happy to be there interviewing you! :)
